

ACTION PLANNING

Public bodies then need to consider how, and in what order, to reduce their emissions and what actions it can take support the Fair Change principles.

When preparing an action plan, consider the following:

It is not mandatory for smaller public bodies to have an action plan, although it is recommended.

For the requirements relevant to your public body please see the 'Climate Change Duties - Guidance for Public Bodies'